Agenda Item #5 -Neighborhood Watch Program Report

a. Summary of Previous Month

Vice Chair Koch reviewed the Monthly Neighborhood Watch Report for the previous month. The commission has surpassed year to date total for 2007 volunteer hours and year to date meetings as well. See attached report.

Agenda Item #6-Commission Communications/ Announcements/Correspondence

a. Commission

1. Commissioner Zuniga welcomed Pat Arellano and Ellen Hayes. He also spoke about a holiday safety presentation at Delta Pines. Another one will be set up for a later time to accommodate those who couldn't make it. He also thanked David Rubio for the flyers he created for it.
2. Commissioner Vasquez also was impressed with the attendance at the Delta Pines presentation. He invited the chief of security at the mall who made a presentation. He asked if they would be able to make another presentation at our quarterly block captain meeting. He then welcomed the two new commissioners as well.
3. Vice Chair Koch gave out the block captain certificates and welcomed the new commissioners.
4. Commissioner Arellano stated that she was looking forward to expanding Neighborhood Watch in beat 6.
5. Commissioner Hayes: "First of all I just wanted to say thank you to family and friends who came out here tonight to support me. I really appreciate that. It means a lot to me. And I know that being a commissioner I have the privilege of having the public trust and it is something that I take very seriously. So I'm looking forward to working with the commission and being a part of this team."

b. Staff

1. Lt. Marchoke went over the top cities for crime. Antioch is 274 out of about 300. That depends on how the people who report their crime numbers handle their statistics.
2. Coffee with the Cops December 29th at 5779 Lone Tree Way Starbucks, 9am - 11am.
3. Commissioner Zuniga also stated that people should call the police department when they see illegal dumping. It takes everyone's effort to clean up the city.
4. Vice Chair Koch- reviewed the next meetings scheduled

Agenda Item #7 – Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned after general conversation with meeting attendees. Some of the topics spoken about were graffiti, drug free zone signs, gang summit, dealer plates, paper plates and stolen vehicles. CSO Alcantara took down the location of a neighborhood watch sign that had been vandalized to be sent to public works for clean up. Commissioner Vasquez made a motion to adjourn and Commissioner Zuniga seconded it. Vice Chair Koch adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
CSO Alcantara
