Mayor and Members of City Council

This is the City Manager's Report for the week of September 17, 2018

City Manager

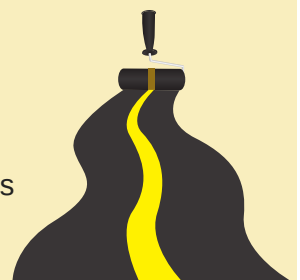

Along with Council Member Ogorchock and City Clerk Simonsen, I attended the League of California Cities Annual Conference. Celebrating their 120th anniversary as an organization, the League is comprised of most California cities and advocates for local issues at the state level. Besides networking with other City Managers and electeds, a few of the sessions I attended dealt with homelessness, cannabis, pensions, current and upcoming state legislation, and affordable housing. Although the economy is the best it has been in years, many cities are struggling with lack of funding, failing roads, the desperate need for pension reform and the state's continual efforts to take away local control and funds.

The City Council has had a productive year, and Tuesday's Council meeting was no exception. They appointed the new interim City Treasurer James Davis, and adopted Cannabis Guidelines which will allow the City's first applications to be processed through the Planning Commission and City Council. The theme for Antioch's branding with the tagline Opportunity Lives Here was also approved. Earlier this year the city council established District Elections in 2020, a Cannabis Zoning Overlay in two areas of town, adopted two development initiatives, and voted to put Measure W, an extension and increase of the current ½ cent sales tax on the November ballot. It's been a busy year and there is much more to come.

In an effort to allocate regional transportation dollars to the construction of Sand Creek Road to connect the Highway 4 Sand Creek Interchange in Brentwood with Deer Valley Road at Kaiser Permanente Hospital, representatives of Brentwood, Pittsburg, CCTA (Contra Costa Transportation Authority), Assemblymember Frazier, Kaiser and developers along this stretch of road, and I met to discuss how this could be accomplished.

Charity Poker Tournament

Want to have a great time and support a good cause? The Antioch Police Officer's Association is holding a charity poker tournament on October 14th to support our community-oriented holiday events. Every year, we provide a safe and exciting Halloween event for the children of Antioch where they can trick-or-treat, take a trip through our haunted house, meet our officers, and check out police vehicles.

Around Christmas time, we hold a Holiday Food Drive for our neighbors who are most in need. Another way we support and give back to our community is through our Adopt-a-Family event where we provide a holiday meal and Christmas presents for those deserving children who may otherwise go without. We work hard to make these events successful and positively impact as many children as possible, but we need your help! Come out and play some poker and enjoy some BBQ. ALL proceeds go directly back to our community events. You can buy tickets or be a sponsor of our event at www.antiochpoa.org.

Seniors at Big Break!

More than 50 seniors went over to Big Break Regional Park on Thursday; seven people kayaked on the Delta! A large number of seniors enjoyed a walk with a Naturalist while several folks just soaked up the sun or explored the exhibits inside the visitor center. This field trip was provided at no cost to the seniors; thank you to East Bay Regional Park District for transportation and Interpretive Services staff, as well as the Antioch Rotary Club for donating matching funds to cover costs. CoCo Café provided box lunches for all seniors.

Antioch Council of Teens

On Monday, the Antioch Council of Teens (ACT) held its first meeting of the school year; 42 middle and high school students from Antioch participated. ACT discussed the Coastal Cleanup event and other programs, events, and services to plan during the year.

Building Inspection Services

The Building Inspection Services Division attended their annual training in San Ramon put on by CALBO (California Building Officials), the leading training resource and certifier of Building Inspectors and Building Officials. This training ensures that the City's Building Inspectors remain at the top of their game and educated on the ever-changing building and housing codes, as well as the best practices for building inspection. More information about CALBO can be found at <https://www.calbo.org/>.

Registration is now open for the Citywide Yard Sale, October 5-7th, 2018.

It's time to start planning your sale or your treasure hunting! You can register and place an ad for a sale at your home, or start your shopping list of favorites at <https://antiochyardsales.com/>

Planning

On September 11, 2018, the City Council took several actions affecting the Planning Division. First, the City Council adopted new Cannabis Business Guidelines that will be used during the review process for future Cannabis Business Use Permits in the City of Antioch. These Guidelines offer direction and clarity to future applicants and express the City's high expectation for quality operations. The Guidelines address issues related to safety, security, signage, and other key criteria. A copy of the Cannabis Guidelines can be available at <https://www.antiochca.gov/community-development-cannabis-docs/>

In addition, the City Council repealed Chapter 21 of Title 5 of the Antioch Municipal Code. This section prohibited the establishment of a medical marijuana facility in the City of Antioch. With the recent adoption of a Cannabis Ordinance, the City no longer prohibits medical or recreational marijuana (cannabis) facilities. This action was a routine cleanup of the Code to ensure consistency.

Finally, the City Council implemented a new category of Development Impact Fee and Parkland Dedication In-Lieu Fee for senior housing development. Presently, senior housing pays the same per-unit rate as traditional unrestricted single-family homes. However, the original rate was based on persons-per-household, which is dramatically less in senior housing units. As such, this new fee category will allow the City to collect a proportionate and fair fee, which will encourage the development of additional senior housing in the City of Antioch – a goal of the City Council.

About The Film: Los Buscadores follows Manu (Tomás Arredondo), a newspaper delivery boy who lives in La Chacarita and works in the outskirts of Asunción, who one day receives a book that talks about the history of Paraguay, but later discovers that he is hiding a map that may or may not reveal the exact location of a treasure hidden at the time of the Triple Alliance War. Together with his friend Fito (Christian Ferreira) and Don Elio (Mario Toñanez), a gentleman who knows about the adventures of the silver "los buscadores" of Yvyguy, they decide to follow the clues and look for the treasure, which would put an end to the economic problems that everybody is going through living very close to the flooding of the Paraguay River.
