

ANTIOCH POLICE DEPARTMENT

---

Tammany Brooks III, Chief of Police

Antioch Police Department Hazardous Materials Response/First Responder Awareness Refresher Training Outline

Introduction

- Instructor Background
- Training Objectives
- Definitions
- Roles of a First Responder

Department Policy

- Lexipol policy 409
- Reporting Exposures to Supervisors
- Reporting of Hazardous Material incidents

Recognition of Hazardous Material Incidents

- Basic clues and warning signs
- Placards, Labels, MSDS and Shipping Papers
- Identifying from a safe distance and officer safety

First Responder Actions

- Understanding the need for safety
- Establishing Incident Command
- Isolation of the Incident
- Notification of appropriate agencies
- Evacuations

ERG Exercise

- Download the ERG application (free)
- Basic ERG use
- Using the ERG to identify substance/vessel type
- Using the ERG to determine safety needs/equipment
- Using the ERG to identify information to give to the Incident Commander