- If your child needs one-on-one or small group support due to a behavior, cognitive or physical disability, please let us know by indicating such needs on the Medical Consent and Instructions form part of your JRL emergency packet.

Illness & COVID-19 Policy

- If your child becomes ill during the program day, we will call for immediate pick up (within 1 hour).
- If your child has one of the following, they cannot attend the program until they receive written medical clearance from a physician:
  - Coronavirus/COVID-19, fever, diarrhea, vomiting, pink eye, flu/stomach flu, conjunctivitis, rash, impetigo, lice, hand/foot/mouth, tuberculosis, roseola, measles, rubella and mumps.
- Masks are strongly recommended indoors for individuals who are not fully vaccinated for COVID-19. Full vaccination is defined as two weeks after receiving the second base dose of a two-dose vaccine, or two weeks after receiving a single dose vaccine.

Concussion/Concussion Symptoms

- If a child sustains an injury from the neck up, staff will ask the JRL a series of questions to determine if they have sustained a concussion. If they are showing symptoms of a concussion, we will call 911 emergency services to conduct a more in-depth health screening.
- If they determine the JRL needs medical care, they will take them to the nearest hospital. We will contact you when medical personnel is called or sooner

Minor Injuries

• Minor injuries such as scrapes, bumps and falls will be reported as an Ouch Report at pick up on the same day of injury.

Participant Conduct & Behavior Rules

- JRL shirts and closed-toed shoes must be worn daily. If a JRL arrives without their shirt, they will be given a temporary shirt or asked to return home to change. (Note: Crocs are not considered proper closed-toed foot attire when away from the pool.)
- 2. Cooperate with staff by following instructions. If you have a question or suggestions, respectfully ask or give it. Recreation staff is open to improvements.
- 3. Respect peers, children, staff, equipment, and facilities.
- 4. Always remain with your assigned group at the assigned site. Ask for permission to use the restroom so staff are aware of your whereabouts and safety. Only go where you have permission to go and return in a timely manner.
- 5. If there is a conflict with a JRL or staff member, use calm language and ask for additional staff intervention to resolve the problem.

Participant Conduct & Behavior

• Our goal to provide a safe, positive environment where your JRL can grow and develop. We have created rules that contribute to this safe and harmonious atmosphere. If program rules are broken, participants will experience our 5-step behavior policy.

5-Step Behavior Management Policy

Step 1: Verbal Reminder of Rules & The Standard of Behavior Step 2: Verbal Warning w/ Redirection From Assignment Step 3: Verbal Warning, Check-In w/ Staff & Parent Thought You Should Know Step 4: Sent Home For the Day Step 5: Dismissal From The Program w/ Request For Immediate Pickup

Depending on the inappropriate behavior that the JRL is engaging in, any or all of these steps may be skipped if the City believes that immediate dismissal from the program is the best course of action.

Please see below for possible actions that may result in immediate dismissal.

We thoroughly investigate each issue and give equitable consequences. Decisions will include discussion around intent and the amount of physical or emotional harm done by the participant.

- Inappropriate Language (including profanity, insults, sexual references, racial and ethnic slurs, offensive language relating to gender identity or expression, physical appearance, or sexual orientation, and inappropriate jokes toward family members)
- Bullying/Harassment
- Physical Fighting/Hitting staff or a participant
- Theft
- Vandalism/Property Damage
- Bringing a weapon to site/program

- Consistent disregard of health and safety standards
- Leaving program or adult supervision without permission/not reporting to program within timely manner
- Misuse of recreation equipment and materials
- Using "self-defense" as a reason to harm others

The City defines self-defense as "stopping someone from causing bodily harm to you as it is happening and stopping once you are physically safe. Retaliation and revenge are not self-defense. Make the choice to find help, walk away, or use you voice to resolve conflict.

Adult Conduct & Behavior

Please Note: No adults other than designated staff will be allowed on-site throughout the duration of the program, unless notified of parent/guardian visiting hours.

- All adults on site must follow all our safety procedures and policies.
- Use appropriate and respectful language and tone of voice at ALL TIMES. Whether having a casual conversation, asking a question, voicing a concern, or airing a complaint, inappropriate language should NEVER be used. Such language includes profanity, insults, racial and ethnic slurs, offensive language relating to gender identity or expressions, physical appearance, or sexual orientation.
- Adults may not approach a student or a youth to resolve a conflict. If you would like to request mediation or discuss a concern, please contact Recreation Programs Coordinators, La'Nae Jackson and Frida Ortiz by email at ljackson@antiochca.gov and fortiz@antiochca.gov or by phone at (925) 776-3073 or (925) 779-7076.
- The authorities will be called if parents arrive to a site under the influence of drugs or alcohol (including marijuana while driving a vehicle).
- Personal relationships with City Staff will not be allowed to compromise the quality or integrity of care provided by the City in regards to programming standards. Special treatment and favors OR deliberate neglect and exclusion are strictly prohibited by all staff, especially those who have connections to participants or their families.
- Sexual harassment will not be tolerated.

allowed on-site throughout the n visiting hours.

Mandated Reporting Disclaimer

We, the City of Antioch Recreation Department Staff, are all mandated reports in accordance with California Penal Code 11164-11174.3. Physical aggression towards minors in our presence or any suspicion of child abuse or neglect will be immediately reported to Child and Family Services.

Any adult that violates our code of conduct will be asked to leave the program and a formal request to restrict them from the program may be made. In general cases, the decisions and actions of a parent/guardian will not reflect on the participant and their program participation. However, in rare and extreme cases, the participant may be terminated from the program along with their guardian.

Youth Rights & Participant Disclaimer

Each youth receiving services from the Recreation Department shall be afforded rights which include, but are not limited to, the following under the law:

- 1. To be accorded dignity in his/her personal relationship with staff and other persons.
- 2. To be accorded safe, healthful and comfortable accommodations, furnishings and equipment to meet his/her needs.
- 3. To be free from corporal or unusual punishment, infliction of pain, humiliation, intimidation, ridicule, coercion, threat, mental abuse, or other actions of a punitive nature, including but not limited to: interference with daily living functions, including eating, sleeping, or toileting, or the withholding of shelter, clothing, medication, or aids to physical functioning.
- 4. To be free to attend religious services or activities of their choice and to have visits from the spiritual advisor of their choice
- 5. Not to be locked into any room.
- 6. Not to be placed in restraining devices without advanced approval by the licensing agency and the parent
